

From Our Online Lecture Series

"Creating a Culture of Generosity" by Bruce Barkhauer

In this lecture, we will explore the biblical and theological understandings that define stewardship as a spiritual discipline. We will learn specific tools to help your church grow in generosity and how to develop year-round programming that keeps a holistic view of stewardship as a part of your congregational life. Discover methods that make conversations around money more effective. This course will provide a more complete grasp of God's people can live in response to Divine generosity.

Discover the joy of giving and processes for building the capacity for greater expressions of generosity among the people in your congregation. The workshop is designed for both clergy and laypersons who serve the church in stewardship.
