

From Our Online Lecture Series

Course Components

- Video-on-Demand Sessions

The material is presented in three sessions can be presented in a group setting as either a three part study or be completed in a single session of approximately two and half hours.

- Self-Paced learning

The course material can be view on your schedule at any time of the day or night.

"Personal Finance: Making More with What You Have" by Bruce Barkhauer

This lecture explores the relationship between Paul's question to Timothy "How can a person manage God's Church if he/she cannot manage his/her own household?" and ten economic principles to guide you in building the capacity for generosity. The core activities center around both constructing a household budget and examining our relationship with money. Participants will gain a biblical foundation for why personal finance matters in the life of an individual (or family system) as well as acquiring tools that will lower anxiety and increase the capacity for generosity. The material lends itself well to a small group study and serves as a primer for more in-depth conversations.

To register, go to:

www.transformingthechurch.org

Course Fee: $9.95

Registration is open NOW!

Participate in this course from anywhere with nothing more than a browser and a broadband Internet connection.

For complete information and to register online, please visit www.transformingthechurch.com.