Course Components

- Video-on-Demand Sessions
Almost 5 hours of high-definition videos delivered in seven on-demand sessions you can watch online at your own pace.

Mainline denominations in the United States are in crisis. These institutions -- created in and for modernity -- are now facing a changed, postmodern culture. Dr. Dick Hamm faces the crisis, examining its origins, and offers sound advice on how to lead churches to make the adaptive changes needed to thrive in postmodern times. This five-session lecture helps us make sense of the new context in which we of the church find ourselves, provides practical models by which to understand how our congregations need to change, describes a visioning process by which we can discover what God is calling the church to be and do now, and provides practical advice to those who provide leadership for change.
